Dear Mr. Doe:

Are you seeking a performance-driven Sales Director with a consistent track record of success in driving revenue growth? I am currently exploring a new career opportunity, and believe I can make a positive contribution to your bottom-line performance. To acquaint you with my background, I am submitting my resume for review. In advance, thank you for your time and consideration.

As demonstrated, I have built a progressive sales career over the span of 15 years, rapidly promoting to leadership roles in recognition of my dynamic results. For the past 7 years, I have steered full-scope sales operations for a 5-state District, successfully launching new markets, developing high-production sales teams and facilitating over $2M in annual revenue growth. I excel in identifying and capitalizing on lucrative markets, defining targeted strategies for capturing new business, developing and servicing key clients, and facilitating competitive leveraging. Among my achievements I have:

- Attained President's Club for 5 consecutive years, benchmarked by my multi-million dollar sales performance
- Ranked as Top Sales Director amongst 10 district managers
- Designed and steered nation-wide training programs focused on maximizing market penetration and sales production

Complementing this, I earned an MBA in 2009, and previously graduated Cum Laude with a BA in Marketing. I am also an active member of the National Sales Leaders Association and have completed several highly-acclaimed Dale Carnegie sales and leadership programs.

As a management team member, you will find that I am positioned to deliver immediate and long term results, with a continual commitment to supporting you in not only attaining, but exceeding your goals. I am eager to discuss how my qualifications uniquely match your current and future needs, and look forward to interviewing with you in the near future.

Professionally,

J.Q. Smith
